I AM Sanat Kumara.

Today, I have come to inform you about the published on the UNIFICATION website text-reminder about the karmic responsibility carried by everyone who gets acquainted with the Teaching coming from the Higher etheric octaves of Light and accepts it internally. That is a responsibility regarding the application of this Teaching in life. Because the time has changed. You have matured. And the time of reading randomly, without paying attention to what exactly you are reading and without bearing the responsibility for that afterwards, is over.

The planet is in such a state that you may take our Teaching and the energy contained in it only if you apply its content. If a student goes to school and is given new knowledge every time, but he does not study it and gets only bad grades, he will remain in the same grade without passing to the next one. For this reason, now we give a Teaching, as well as Guidance for the application of the Teaching that you have received from us. Our Guidance is addressed to those of you who can hear and implement what they heard and who work on their perfection and for the well-being of the Living Life.

At the core of your legal systems, there is the principle that ignorance of the law is without justifying anyone. That also applies to the full extent of the Lord's Law of Karma. However, some of you would like to know the Law, without following it and, moreover, without taking responsibility for its breaking. Think yourselves whether one can do this?

My beloved, we know how hard it is for you in your material world. That is why we are without asking you to apply the whole Teaching at once in its fullness and that if you don't implement it immediately, you will carry karmic responsibility! However, many times you have been told that it is important that you demonstrate even though little by little, gradually, but steadily and in the right direction

- willingness for change for the better and
- your intention to implement that change,
- as well as your persistence and determination in the application of the Teaching in your life.

Now the conditions to receive Our Teaching have been the most difficult for a long, long time so far. The conditions now are much more difficult than the conditions in which any of the Messengers of the Hierarchy of Light has worked for the past several hundred years. This is because of the time in which you are living now and because of the state of the humankind and the condition of the entire planet. So, my recommendation to you is to abstain from having any negative attitude towards Our present Messenger but to support her in any possible way and to thank the Father that despite everything, she has agreed to work so that it will be easier for you to pass through what lies ahead.
